LONDON, June 5.

THEY write from Antwerp, that 'tis impossible to express the Desolation which the Siege of that Place has occasioned: The Citadel which was once the Glory of that Country and the Admiration of Strangers, is now only a Spectacle of Horror, and all the fine Houses in it, destroyed and beat to pieces by the Balls and Bombs —— The Cannon us'd in it as well as Mortars, were of the largest Size, and about 3000 Bombs per Diem were thrown into it for 3 Days together. The small Garrison that was left in it, did indeed make a gallant Defence, till most of their Guns were dismounted, and the whole of their Works turn'd into a Heap of Rubbish: — The Suddenness of the taking of that Place, which was accounted one of the strongest in the Netherlands, 'tis said, is owing to a new Way of making War, of which M. Saxe has the Honour to be the sole Inventor, which is calculated not to take, but to ruin, not to reduce, but to destroy Places: And they add, That Orders have been given for removing the Cannon found in the Citadel; and 'tis tho't the next will be, to undermine the Fortifications, as they are already doing those of Newport and Ostend, and the Castle of Ghent; that so the French may continue Masters of the Country at Pleasure, till they are restored, and that the King may insist on their remaining demolished for the same Reasons that the Maritime Powers insist on Dunkirk's remaining in its present State—They hope at Antwerp nevertheless, that they may not long remain under the Dominion of their new Masters, tho' it will be a long time before they recover the Loss sustain'd by them.

From Vienna we learn, that the Empress Queen has received positive and fresh Advices from the Empress of Russia, that a considerable Number of Forces, shall immediately march into Germany, to be dispos'd of as her Hungarian Majesty shall think proper, in Case the Dutch shall abandon the Party they are engaged in: on which her Majesty has tho't fit, once more to cause strong Representations to be made to their High Mightinesses, letting them see the imminent Danger to which they expose themselves by their Conduct; at the same time offering them a Body of 20,000 Men, to march directly wherever they shall see fit to direct.

LONDON, June 7.

The general Talk of a Peace, which has been for some Days past, is entirely ceased: and War is become the Subject of most Conversations; and some People assert, that 12 Battalions will be immediately embark'd for Holland, which probably will be follow'd by others: A Plan being (as they say) concerted to stop the growing Power and ambitious Views of France, which are chiefly pointed towards Great-Britain, the Principal Obstructor of their Scheme of Universal Monarchy.

We learn from the Hague, that the French Party begins to decline daily in Holland, and that the Lords of the Regency seem to depend more and more on the Friendship of his Prussian Majesty, to whose powerful Interposition alone it is imputed that the French Army did not enter the Territories of the Republick immediately after reducing the famous Citadel of Antwerp.

Yesterday Vice Admiral Lestock waited on his Majesty at Kensington, when he was most graciously received, and was appointed Admiral of the Blue in his Majesty's Navy; and we hear that he will soon sail with a Squadron of Men of War into the Mediterranean.

They write from the Hague, that the Representations of the Empress Queen has had very extraordinary Effects on the States General, and caused great Debates among them; so that the Number of those who had declared for a Neutrality, were now reduced to above one Third, and even those seem'd to waver.

Yesterday the agreeable News came, that Capt. Rodney, in his Majesty's Ship the Eagle, has taken and carried into Kinsale, the Esperance, a Spanish Privateer 16 Carriage Guns and 140 Men.

London, June 14. Our private Letters from the Hague acquaint us, that the grand Affair between the India Companies is compromized upon the following Terms, viz. That the Dutch shall keep the Cargoes of the 3 Ships, and shall pay the Company 1,500,000 Florins, which amounts to 150,000 l. Sterl. in full Satisfaction. The Abbe de la Ville is quickly expected there, at execute a Commission on the Part of his most Christian Majesty, which occasions a strong Report of Peace. That his Prussian Majesty intends to visit Guilderland, Cleves, East Friesland, and perhaps some other Country, before his Return to Berlin; and that he has actually sent a Person of Distinction to invite his most Christian Majesty to an Interview with himself and the Elector Palatine. That his Majesty has drawn up a Plan of a general Peace, and that he is resolved to oppose that Power which shall obstinately refuse to accept the same.

The Talk of Peace is now more than ever; and by the best Advices will be more advantageous to Great-Britain than the Terms obtained by the Treaty of Utrecht.

We hear that a Plan will speedily be laid before both Houses of Parliament, for a general Pacification.

Whitehall, June 11. His Royal Highness has authentick Intelligence, that the Pretender's Son embarked in a small Boat 3 or 4 Days after the Battle of Culloden, for Long Island, from whence he was dodging backwards and forwards in a small Vessel, even some time after the French Ships were of the Coast. There are also confirmed Accounts received from several Parts, that the Rebels are totally dispersed, and that there are in no Part 50 of 'em together.

Louisburgh, July 17. We are preparing for and expecting the French, who we suppose to be near us: How the Dispute will end, God knows; but I am apprehensive there will be a great deal of Blood shed.-- As there are at Gaspee, at the Entrance of Canada River, three French Frigates, the Vigilant and the Norwich, two 60 Gun Ships, are going, I believe, to join the Kinsale, that is at Anchor ten Leagues from hence, in order to look after them, and hope they will bring a good Account of them.

BOSTON, July 21.

By a Letter from Lisbon, to a Gentleman in this Town, dated the 25th of May last, we have Advice, that the Sterling Castle Man of War cruising in the Mediterranean, about the Middle of March last, fell in with one of Mons. Deluge's Squadron, a 36 Gun Ship, and took her; but the next Day fell in with Deluge himself, and was oblig'd to abandon his Prize, she having no Mast standing: The Men kill'd and wounded, left on board belonging to her, were 75; and one Officer and 25 Men belonging to the Sterling Castle were also left in her; but the Captain with the other Officers and Men, amounting to 91 of the Enemy, were brought off by the Sterling: Of the English 10 Men were killed and wounded in the Action. Capt. Townshend, with 5 Sail was after them, and seen not far from them. They are of equal Force.

New York, July 28. Yesterday arrived here Capt. Barnes in 14 Days from Louisbourg, who informs us, that a few Days before he sail'd, a French Privateer Ship of 16 Guns, which had been taken by Admiral Martin just after she came out of Brest, was arriv'd at Cape Breton, having been dispatch'd there by that Admiral,

Admiral, with the Advice, that on his taking her, he had learnt, that the Breſt Fleet, conſiſting of 14 Sail of the Line, and upwards of 60 Sail of Tranſports, was actually ſail'd from Breſt to the Weſtward, and it was reported they were bound to Cape Breton; adviſing alſo, that as ſoon as he could learn the Certainty of their Courſe, he ſhould follow them immediately with a powerful Fleet

NEW YORK, July 28

We have been this Week paſt in daily Expectation of the Arrival of the Honourable Brigadier General Gooch, from Virginia, in order to have the neceſſary Directions and Diſpoſitions given for carrying on the Expedition; but we hear, that on Saturday Night laſt, Advice came by a private Hand, that that Gentleman is in ſuch a poor State of Health, that it has been thought impracticable for him to proceed: On this News a Report ſeems to prevail here, that the Honourable George Thomas, Eſq; Governor of Penſilvania, is to ſucceed him in that Command, who is a Gentleman of known Ability, Life and Spirit.

Upwards of Two Hundred Men of the new rais'd Troops from this City, deſign'd on the preſent Expedition, embark'd laſt Week in ſeveral Veſſels for Albany, and Preparations are daily making for more to follow; and we hear from moſt Parts of the Country, that almoſt all the Companies deſign'd to be rais'd in this Colony to the Amount of 1500 Men are well nigh full, and begin to be impatient to hear the News of the Arrival of the Fleet and Forces from England, that they may take the Field before the cold Seaſon comes on.

By the laſt Sloop from Albany we have certain Advice, that three Mohawk Indians have killed the Officer of the French Garriſon at Crown Point, and another Perſon, as they were walking in the Fort Garden; the Scalps they have brought with them to Schonegtade, which we hear they intend to make a Preſent to his Excellency our Governor: They ſay that they were ſo cloſely purſued by the French Soldiers, that one of our Indians, was obliged to take off the Officer's Scalp with his Teeth, not having time to do it in the uſual Manner. Three other parties of our Indians are gone on the ſame Deſign, one whereof conſiſting of 16, deſign as far as Montreal, and ſome of 'em hope to preſent his Excellency with ſome French Priſoners before his Return hither.

BOSTON, Auguſt 11.

Laſt Thurſday arrived here Capt. Williams in a Sloop from Louiſburg in 11 Days, by whom we learn, that Capt. Reuſe and Capt. Starkey in a Tranſport, were returned there from St. Johs's, where they had been ſent to bring off the French Inhabitants, but they were moſt of them gone into the Woods with their Effects, and refuſe to come off That a Party of our Soldiers with ſome Perſons of the Ships Company going on Shore to procure ſome live Cattle and to cut ſome Hay, the Indians, as they were at Work in cutting the Hay not far from the Ships, fell upon them, and kill'd or took 28; about Ten, the Remainder, eſcap'd, and got on board th Ships by ſwimming: They ſuppoſe the Indians were nigh 200. 'Tis ſaid, an Indian Fellow belonging to Capt. Reuſe, was ſeized by two of the Enemy's Indians, who endeavoured to wreſt his Gun out of his Hands; but he being very ſtrong and courageous, kept Poſſeſſion of it, and having knock'd down one of his Enemies with the But End, ſhot the other dead upon the Spot, and then took to the Water, where he found a Youth, Son of Governor Clinton of New York, whom he took upon his Back, and conveyed ſafe on board. 'Tis ſaid the Youth could not ſwim, and ran into the Water to ſecure himſelf from the Indians, who would doubtleſs at laſt have kill'd him, had not that gallant Fellow found Means to get him on board We hope the poor but gallant Fellow will have a Reward equal to his eminent Services and that the French will be treated as their curſed Perfidy deſerves.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 21.

By a Letter from Bridgetown, Barbados, dated July 24 we learn, that Capt. Middleton, in a Bermudas Sloop, from this Place, bound to Barbados, having made the Iſland, was chaſed by a French Privateer, which endeavoured to cut him off from the Land; but the Bermudian got a head of her, and Night coming on, ran cloſe by a Reef of Rocks, which he was acquainted with, on purpoſe to decoy the Frenchman, which had the deſired Effect; for the Privateer ran upon the Rocks, and ſtove to Pieces; the Crew ſaved themſelves by ſwimming, and are all in Priſon.

Tueſday laſt arrived here Capt. Hazleton in a Flag of Truce from the Havannah, with a few Priſoners: He had 16 Days Paſſage, and informs us, that Don Pedro, in a Spaniſh Privateer Ship, of great Force, and 300 Men on board, and a Brig. her Tender, of 12 Carriage Guns, and 100 Men, ſailed a few Days before him with ſome Veſſels for the Canaries, which they were to convoy to the Latitude of Bermudas, and then to come and cruize on theſe on theſe Coaſts for Proviſions, in order to proceed on a Voyage to the Coaſt of Guinea.

Boſton, Auguſt 25. By Veſſels from the Weſt Indies we are informed, that the Spaniards at the Havanna are as plentifully and as regularly ſupply'd with Proviſions from Providence, as thoſe at St. Auguſtine are from Carolina, yet we have never heard that any of the Offenders have been brought to Juſtice for thoſe Crimes. We have lately ſeen Examples made (and that very juſtly) on ſome who had taken up Arms againſt their Prince; and why thoſe who ſupply the Enemy with Proviſions in Time of War (and probably with ſomething elſe) ſhould eſcape with Impunity, we muſt leave our Betters to ſay.--- As to the French at Martinico, Gaurdaloupe, &c They have taken ſo many of our Veſſels, ('tis ſaid at leaſt 5 out of 6) that they are meerly glutted with Proviſions &c while our own Iſlands are in great Diſtreſs for want. 'Tis ſaid the Governor of Martinico lately ſent an inſulting Letter to the Governor of one of our Iſlands, offering to ſupply him with Proviſions taken from the Engliſh! A wonderful Change of Circumſtances ſince Admiral Townſend was upon their Coaſt! And it is owing to the ſcandalous neglect of Duty in a certain Commander, who is too well known to need naming, that Monſieur has had any Cauſe for his Rodomantado.

New York, September 1. Yeſterday Afternoon arrived from a Cruize, the Privateer Brig Heſter Capt. Samuel Bayard Commander, (of this Place,) and brought in with her three fine Prizes, viz. two Ships and a Snow, which they took the 18th of Auguſt laſt, off Hiſpaniola: The two Ships were bound from Old France to the Weſt Indies, one called the Jupiter, the other the Africa; They both ſtruck at the firſt Broadſide; one having but about 8 Guns, and 25 Men, the other but 2 Guns and 25 Men; they are both likely Ships, of about 130 or 150 Tuns: Their Cargoes conſiſt of Wines, Oyl, Olives, Naval Stores, Duck, Powder, Bar Iron, and other Merchandizes. The Snow was a homeward bound Veſſel, from Hiſpaniola, laden chiefly with Sugar and Indigo, and is a about 110 Tuns. Theſe make up ſix Prizes taken by the Heſter this Cruize.

'Tis ſaid the 2 Ships above mentioned, came out in Company with Part of the Breſt Fleet, while the other Part were block'd up by the Engliſh: They had ſeparated from the others but a few Days before, who were under Convoy of ſix Men of War, which Capt. Bayard had alſo Sight of the Day before, and ſoon after falling in with five Engliſh Men of War, he gave them Intelligence thereof, who thereupon immediately made the beſt of their Way after them; and we hope ſhortly to hear, that they have had the good Luck to come up with ſome of them.

Portſmouth, May 30. A great Number of Women have enliſted on board the Fleet for Cape-Breton, and continue to enter daily. They are allowed Ten Pounds each and their Proviſions during their Paſſage, and when they arrive, are to receive further Encouragement. Here are alſo ſeveral more Tranſport-ſhips, on board of which are embarked Nine Companies of Foot belonging to the Regiments that engaged with the Rebels at Preſton-Pans; Lord John Murray's Highland Regiment, Powlett's Marines, &c. and are to be commanded by General St. Clair, with the newly created Brigadier Generals OFarrell, Richbell and Graham, Colonel Holmes, and ſeveral other Officers. Alſo Capt. Chambers's Company of Matroſſes, Bombardiers, &c. amounting to 140 Men, goes with him.

We have Advice from Mingary-Caſtle of the 19th Inſtant, that the two French Men of War which were ſome Time ago at Ariſaig near Loch-Noua, had, beſides Stores, Ammunition, &c. landed did the Sum of 40,000 l. Sterling. The Captains of these Ships having, upon Account of the bad Situation of the Pretender's Son's Affairs, since the Battle of Culloden, refused to deliver up the said Money, the Rebels, by Threats and Violence, had forced it from them: That there had been frequent Meetings of many of the Rebels, near the Braes of Lochaber who were supposed to have assembled in order to the making a Distribution of the 40,000 l. above-mentioned.

CHARLES-TOWN, September 29

We have Advice from New-Providence, that the Assembly of the Bahama Islands have pass'd a Bill (NEMINA CONTRADICENTE) setling the Salary which was heretofore given to their Governors by an annual Bill, on his Excellency Governor Tinker, during his holding that Government, whether present or absent from it. Such is the Confidence which that Gentleman hath deservedly acquired after an Administration of Five Years and an half, by acting with Sincerity the truly noble Part which belongs to the Character of a Governor, in pursuing stedfastly without Artifice, without Party or low mistaken Politicks, the true Interest and Happiness of the Country commited to his Charge; raising it's Reputation and Figure, encreasing the Number and Wealth of it's Inhabitants by an open and generous Assistance and Encouragement to Trade and Commerce shared alike by all. By these laudable Arts we see those Islands enjoying a Felicity but rarely known to other Places even in Times Peace; and tho' not long since the Pity, now become the Envy of their Neighbours! Of so much Moment are the Actions of a Governor to a Colony! And so ready are People, who feel the Happiness which results from a Governor who does his Duty, to give the most publick Testimonies of their grateful Sense of it

On Wednesday last sail'd on a Cruize against his Majesty's Enemies, the Confidence Privateer, of this Port commanded by Capt. John Gordon

The Small Pox is not in Town.
